

From: Zach Ruitter [mailto:zruiter@gmail.com]

Sent: Tuesday, July 16, 2013 12:34 PM

To: Info

Subject: Re: Invitation to provide feedback on public comments received about CNSC draft document REGDOC-2.2.3-Personnel Certification: Radiation Safety Officers

In the case of Shield Source, the RSO who was friendly enough, was certified by a two week training course, this needs to be acknowledged as an example where the regulator compromised safety by allowing such badly trained individuals to be certified with a two week course.

That is my comment please add it.