Ya'thi Néné's Role

- Prior to YNLR, Athabasca communities were largely uninformed about exploration and mining projects and received little benefits
- Damage to the lands and waters occurred
- Now, YNLR liaises between communities, industry, and government on projects of mutual interest and has formal agreements with multiple exploration and mining companies
- To strengthen the relationship and support the discussion of issues or concerns, YNLR and CNSC established a Terms of Reference in 2022

CNSC ROR 2024 Meeting: 17 September 2025

Attended by YNLR staff and ALPC

YNLR's responses and feedback:

1. Fines administered by CNSC
2. Transparency in communication
3. YNLR's involvement in IEMP
4. CNSC's response to YNLR feedback

1. Fines Administered by CNSC

YNLR supports CNSC in implementing fines to proponents as needed to ensure accountability

YNLR would appreciate timely information about such occurrences, as appropriate

Notification enables YNLR to provide accurate information to Athabasca Basin Leadership and its members

2. Transparency in Communication

YNLR supports the CNSC to encourage proponents to communicate effectively on matters that impacts employment of community members

Communication of information of interest enables YNLR to disseminate accurate information

3. YNLR's Involvement in IEMP

YNLR appreciates our involvement with the IEMP each year

- Interviews help determine sampling locations and traditional foods to sample
- Staff participate in field work
- Residents can donate foods they want tested

In May 2024, CNSC and YNLR co-presented about IEMP at Turtle Island Conference

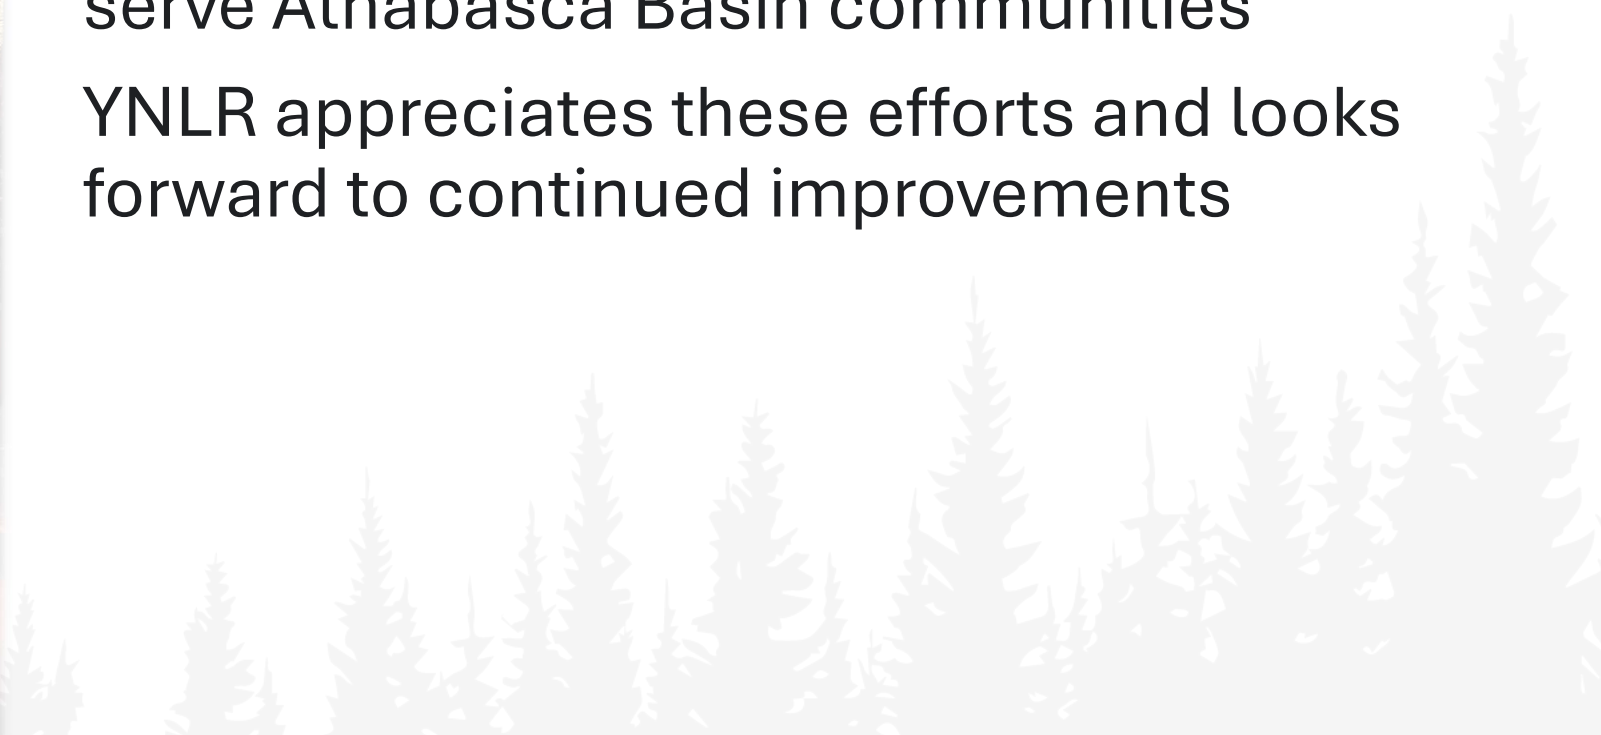

The IEMP is a great example of how remote Indigenous communities can work directly with regulators

4. CNSC's Response to YNLR Feedback

YNLR has provided many suggestions to the CNSC about processes that would better serve Athabasca Basin communities

YNLR appreciates these efforts and looks forward to continued improvements

Closing Remarks

YNLR acknowledges initiatives by CNSC that contribute to relationship-building and engagement with Basin communities

- Terms of Reference: meetings, work plans, communications
- YNLR involvement in IEMP
- Two Indigenous Stakeholder and Capacity Funds
- Multiple meetings with Commission

YNLR welcomes further collaboration with CNSC
